

Ch-1: You and Me

In the Post-Apocalyptic World, at the year 2173, the Z-Virus, took over the world's 98.6% of population. Everybody started Mutating at a large scale of mass. There were some Survivors, who were Immune to the virus. Some of these survivors met at the Circus, a place where the Government provided Food, Shelter, and Protection from the virus. But, only A few made it, the others were Left Out on the Dry Lands of Sahara.

Mike: O John! For tomorrow, it will have been 6 years since we met.

John: Yes Brudther, i still remember those good old days of Engaging and Enjoying at the Hogwarts.

Mike: I'm getting very tired and feeling Dizzy, let's rest somewhere.

John: I see a Cave and some Shade there.

Mike: Let's go!

They both started walking towards the cave, searching for a place to rest and find some other Survivors.

To their Luck, John found something.

John: Bro, i see a Jimmy over there.

Mike: Oh really?

John: Really bro!

Mike: From when did Dogs Start to Live in Deserts like Sahara?

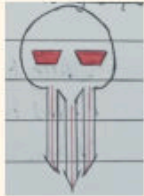

John: I am not talking about any dog, i am talking about that Jeep standing on its Tyres!

They started moving slowly towards the cave, they saw a Smoke coming out.

Mike: Go slowly, i hear Voices.

They started listening to those voices. They heard People laughing loudly, Discussing about Different Groups.

Mike: I see the Skull.

John: It's them, The Devils

The Devils were a group of Individuals who were Skilled Soldiers with Defensive and Offensive High-tech Weapons, who were Betrayed by the government and lost their Families. They are on the verge to gather as many people they could and start a War on them.

John: I see the Keys there.

Mike: But how do we get it, it's with the Leader.

John: We should Plan something.

While they were planning, they heard Footsteps walking towards them.

Mike: What will we do?

John: I got a Idea!

John had a Baseball Bat, using it, he Silently Choked the Soldier to his death.

John: Now I'll Wear his Uniform.

Mike: Then what?

John: I'll bring another one.

Mike: How?

John: I'll lure one more, you kill him.

Mike: Then?

John: You remove and wear his Uniform.

Mike: Very good! Excellent! Then?

John: Are you gone mad, do you think me as some A.I like Chatgpt or Gemini. They'll also have a limit until you go Pro. Ideas generate when we have a Brain or BrainChip. You don't have both of them.

Then they did as he planned and got a Ticket of entry inside the Camp.

They went to the Leader and asked the keys but, the Leader got a Doubt of not seeing them before. Still he gave them the Keys.

They took it and went to the Jeep.

The Problem was;

Mike : Bro, there are Many Keys and Jeeps .

Before they entered the Camp , they saw only one Jeep, so, they were Confused .

John: What will we do?

Mike : What do you think of me now?

John: I at least brought us here, what did you do? Not even a single plan you made.

Suddenly John found a Button on the Key Bunch, which when Pressed, Revealed Numbers and Symbols on the Keys.

Then Mike Remembered watching a Movie in his Childhood with Same Mechanisms the Key and Jeep.

Mike : John, do you remember the ' Blade Runner 2049 '?

John: Do you've any other Good plan than thinking about some Random Movies.

Mike : I'm not talking about ' Random Movies', do you Remember the Scene where he gets Stuck in a Jail of High-Tech Future , where the keys had the Same Button like Mechanisms, which if pressed, Revealed Numbers and Symbols Related to the Jeep's Model Number , Number plate and Engine Number .

The Numbers and Symbols were ' D7679JIMY'.

John: So, D7 is the Engine Number , 679 is the last 3 Digit of the Number plate , and JIMY is Jimny which is the Model Name.

They Found the Correct One and went to it. At the same time, Another Guard found 2 Bodies Laying on the Ground, Without Uniform Fallen Near the Entrance. He Informed to the Leader , The Leader Along with the few Soldiers took Weapons and started Marching towards them.

Mike : Oh Shit! Start the Jeep Fast..

John: What do you think i am doing? I don't even know how to drive one of them.

Mike : Give it to me.

John: Take it. Don't tell even you don't know. Maybe this key is not good.

Mike Saw the key.

Mike : You never seen a key before. Are you Blind.

John: Just turn it on.

Mike : The key should be from the Right not the left.

He turned it on. The Soldiers started Shooting at them. Even the types of Weapons were Dangerous on their Own Basis. They also took their Vehicles and started Chasing .

Mike : They're Closing, i can't drive fast, we are in a Desert.

John: I see a Wreck there!

They went to the Wreck and found Dune Buggies .

Mike : Are you Thinking what i am Thinking?

John: What?

Mike : What? You really don't know what i am Thinking.

John: I really don't know. What is it?

Mike : It's Fine, No Problem , let's go.

They took the Buggy and started Escaping. But,

John: I see an Army in the Back!

Mike : I see a Big Hurdle in Front!

John: I see a Valley at the Right!

Mike : I see the Fuel Down!

John: I see the Engine Burning.

Mike: What do you see to your Left?

John: What do i see, Are you Joking!

Mike: Please, Please!

John: Really Mike, to my Left

Mike: Yes!

John: I see a Stupid person making a Nonsense conversation named Mike.

Mike: Apologize for what you told!

John: Okay Fine, Sorry! Now what will we do?

Mike: I'll drive through the Hordle, okay aha?

John: Okay...

They were driving. But, The Engine Blasted! Boooooom!!! They still were driving with Half Buggy. But even that Blasted!

Mike: Now what will we do?

They Blasted with their Seats.

John: Remove the Seatbelt and Hide behind the Seats.

Mike: Mine is not coming out!

At the same time, the Bullets from the Devil's Weapons, tore the Seatbelt.

These Sounds Attracted the Hordle towards them.

John: Now everything is left to God. Hallelujah!

Mike: Hey Wait, do you Hear what i Hear?

John: Yeah!!!

They Turned to the Back.

They saw a Semi-Truck Riding Backwards with a Big Speaker Playing Waka-Waka and a Big Machine Gun, Shooting 'the Hordles' and 'the Devils', at the same time, through the Hordle.

Mike: God came for us Bro!

A Girl Peeped Out of that Machine-Gun's Magazine Box. Another Peeped Out of the Truck Mirror.

They Stopped near them.

Girl-1: Hey guys, what's the Matter ahh?

Mike: Nothing, just Time Passing.

Girl-2: Okay fine. Then you've no Use of us.

John: We are really sorry, he didn't Mean that.

Mike: I Mean, hey wait, i've Seen you Somewhere.

Girl-2: Where?

Mike: In Nicky's Party, at Boston.

Girl-1: Really.

John: Maybe!

Girl-1: So many Tried to Flirt with me, you are one of them.

Girl-2: Counting you, it's, uh... 528!

John: Mike keeps on Roaming around USA and UK.

Girl-2: But she's from Venice, Italy.

Mike: I have been to Italy A few times.

John: You didn't tell me.

Mike: I just don't Remember so much, oh wait, i remember, i saw you at Gabriela's.

John: You just told you don't remember anything.

Girl-2: Okay, so our Time is Wasting, we're moving.

Mike: No way!

Girl-1: Okay Bye!
